

MeadowSow™ Seed

BNG Product Range

Lowland Meadow

This wildflower seed mix is designed to create a UKHab Lowland Meadow (g3a) habitat. Formulated with Biodiversity Net Gain (BNG) projects in mind, this mix contains 25 UKHab indicator species, ensuring compliance and a thriving, biodiverse habitat. Comprised of UK native wildflowers and non-invasive grasses.

Product Code

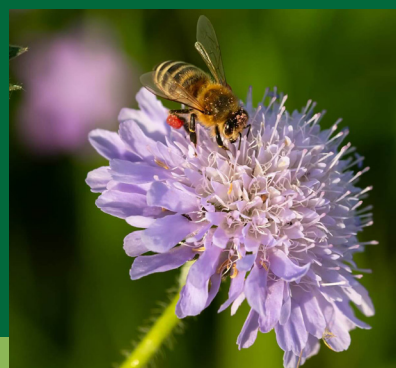

MS-LLM

Get a quote

On our website or by calling 01256 771222

Find out more

wildflowerturf.co.uk/bngproducts

Core species, colour and flowering period

					M	A	M	J	J	A	S	O
Common Knapweed (Centaurea nigra)	Attracts insects enjoyed by birds and provides seeds in Autumn.	50-100cm	P	UK Native
Cowslip (Primula veris)	Cowslip is a delightful harbinger of spring, attracting early pollinators and brightening meadows.	25cm	P	UK Native
Field scabious (Knautia arvensis)	A great all-rounder, providing food sources and habitat for garden birds, bees and butterflies.	50-150cm	P	UK Native
Meadow-sweet (Filipendula ulmaria)	Provides habitat for butterflies and other pollinators with its clusters of small white flowers.	120cm	P	UK Native
Ragged Robin (Silene flos-cuculi)	A perennial wildflower that attracts pollinators with its distinctive pink, deeply divided petals.	80cm	P	UK Native
Rough Hawkbit (Leontodon hispidus)	A cheerful yellow-flowered perennial herb, with hairy leaves and stems, commonly found in grasslands and on roadsides.	50cm	P	UK Native
Yellow rattle (Rhinanthus minor)	Yellow Rattle's hemi-parasitic nature weakens host grass species and allows for greater floral diversity	25-50cm	A	UK Native
Crested dog's-tail (Cynosurus cristatus)	Crested dog's-tail is a common grass species found in pastures and lawns.	75cm	A	UK Native
Sweet vernal grass (Anthoxanthum odoratum)	Sweet vernal grass is a fragrant grass that is one of the first to flower in spring.	70cm	SLP	UK Native								