

Enhance Bees

A solution crafted to address the critical decline of bee populations. With predominantly blue or purple-coloured flowers, preferred by bees due to their high volume of nectar production, this enhancer not only supports pollinator populations but also adds vibrant hues to any landscape.

Product Code

ENC-Bee

Find out more wildflowerturf.co.uk/enhance

Get a quote

On our website or by calling
01256 771222

Species, colour and flowering period

Species, colour and flowering period					A	M	J	J	A	S	O
Borage (Borago officinalis)	With it's vivid blue flowers, Borage is long-flowering and a superb nectar provider.	60	A	UK Native
Common Poppy (Papaver rhoeas)	This iconic wildflower creates vibrant displays and offers abundant pollen.	60	A	UK Native
Field Forget-me-not (Myosotis arvensis)	Long-flowering and highly resilient, provides essential pollen and nectar.	40	SLP	UK Native
Field Scabious (Knautia arvensis)	A great all-rounder, providing food sources and habitat for garden birds, bees and butterflies.	150	P	UK Native
Fiddleneck (Phacelia tanacetifolia)	An exceptionally rich nectar and pollen source, a favourite amongst pollinators.	120	A	UK Native
Sainfoin (Onobrychis vicifolia)	Bright pink flowers make this a powerful bee magnet, enhancing biodiversity.	80	P	UK Native
Self Heal (Prunella vulgaris)	A favourite amongst bumblebees, offering valuable nectar.	30	P	UK Native
Viper's Bugloss (Echium vulgare)	Renowned for its abundant nectar, Viper's Bugloss is key for attracting a wide range of bee species.	120	BI	UK Native
Wild Marjoram (Origanum vulgare)	Aromatic foliage and nectar-rich flowers provide essential food for bees.	100	P	UK Native							